Marco de Transparencia Reforzado (MTR)

Acuerdo de París, Artículo 13 → establece el marco de transparencia reforzado para las medidas y el apoyo;

- Con el fin de fomentar la confianza mutua
- Promover la aplicación efectiva
- Dotado de flexibilidad para tener en cuenta las diferentes capacidades de las Partes que son países en desarrollo
- Basado en la experiencia colectiva
- Reconoce las circunstancias especiales de los países menos adelantados y los pequeños estados insulares.

Propósito: transparencia de las medidas

- Dar visión clara de las medidas adoptadas, aumentar la claridad y facilitar el seguimiento de los progresos realizados en relación a la CDN de cada Parte, las medidas de adaptación, para informar el balance mundial (GST)

Propósito: transparencia del apoyo

- Dar una visión clara del apoyo prestado o recibido por las distintas Partes en el contexto de las medidas para hacer frente al cambio climático, ofrecer, en lo posible, un panorama completo del apoyo financiero agregado que se haya prestado, informar el GST

Los refuerzos más importantes

- Se establecieron modalidades, procedimientos y directrices (MPD) comunes para todas las Partes, ofreciendo flexibilidad para la Partes que son países en desarrollo teniendo en cuenta sus capacidades
- Mejora continua: Cada parte debería (en la medida de lo posible) identificar, actualizar periódicamente y presentar información sobre las áreas de mejora
- Disposiciones y requerimientos mayormente mandatorios (“shall” o “deberá”)
- Comité del Artículo 15 (mecanismo para facilitar la aplicación y promover el cumplimiento): relación entre la CDN, la presentación de información, el examen técnico, examen facilitador y multilateral.

Flexibilidad a la luz de las capacidades

MPD del MRT especifican las disposiciones de flexibilidad para aquellas Partes que son países en desarrollo y que requieren de ella a la luz de sus capacidades.

Las disposiciones específicas de flexibilidad se refieren a:

- Reporte de emisiones antropogénicas por las fuentes y la absorciones antropogénicas por los sumideros de GEI en el informe sobre el inventario nacional de GEI
- Reporte de la información necesaria para hacer un seguimiento de los progresos alcanzados en la aplicación y el cumplimiento de la CDN
- El examen técnico
- El examen facilitador y multilateral de los progresos

Los países en desarrollo son quienes determinan su uso de la flexibilidad
