Transparency in the context of the MPGs

Article 13 decision 18/CMA.1, Paris Agreement adopts the enhanced transparency framework (ETF) for action and support

The ETF is a common framework applicable to all Parties, with specific flexibility provisions provided to DC Parties that need it in the light of their capacities in its implementation.

Why map national climate finance flows

For your own national planning.

A prerequisite to identify support needs, and make targeted support requests.

Provides an overview of government spending and other national investments.

Why map support needed

For your own national planning and climate finance strategy, as it is the result of an assessment of available national resources and needed support to ensure implementation

To identify existing barriers for investments and potentially unlock private and international financial flows towards low carbon development

To attract financial support, lowering the cost of financing, potentially enhancing ambition and cover the incremental cost of climate action

Hard to communicate in detail without a proper overview of:

- Investments needed / costs
- National investments

Executed by:

Why map support received

- Comply with the reporting requirements of the UNFCCC
- Follow up on and report support by source and identify potential underutilized vehicles
- Verify and evaluate the information about support provided by sources of climate finance
- Lessons from various experiences of the financial instruments used

- Improve confidence, transparency and accountability
- Improve understanding of how support is utilized
- Analyse whether the support is effective
- Facilitate the development of policies to enhance climate finance through the provision of more complete data

Key challenges and limitations when reporting on Support NR

Lack of data on financial support received, including the financial tracking systems and the capacity to estimate the support needed.

INSTITUTION

Institutional arrangements insuring the stakeholder coordination, engagement and ownership.

Reporting on use, impact and expected results of climate finance for adaptation.

Integrating gender considerations into reporting.

Take home points

NOT mandatory

The provision of information on support needed and received is still not mandatory for developing countries. As such, it is not a requirement but countries should strive to report this information

- Recognition of effectiveness of support
- Cross referencing with support provided
- Identification of needs and attracting further support

ETF MPG

The MPG for Article 13 provide much more details on the relevant information to be reported on support needed and received.

- Streamlining information between parties
- Guide the collection of relevant data

Challenges

There are different national circumstances and capacities between countries, including arrangements to capture the information.

- Institutional arrangements
- Differences and uncertainty on definitions and methods
- Guidance and capacity to assess support needed and received
